Community Youth Representatives – Role & Responsibilities

The main role of a Community Youth Representative is to represent the opinions of young people within the Newtown area to the Newtown and Llanllwchaiarn Town Council.

Being a “Youth Rep” is a great way to learn about local democracy and will look good on your CV.

Responsibilities include:

- Feeding back ideas and views from the young people in the town.
- Helping to engage more young people in Town Council activities & events
- Attending meetings and taking part in discussions & debates.
- Visiting youth groups and organisations within the town to gather young people’s views and act as a link with the Town Council.
- Learning how the Town Council works.
- Helping to promote the work of the Newtown and Llanllwchaiarn Town Council to young people.

Youth Reps are expected to follow a code of behaviour. Your mentor will give you more information about this.

Youth Reps do not vote on decisions but they can raise topics, inform councillors and take part in discussions.

Youth Reps can be in post for any length of time up to 5 years. Training and allowances are available.

Supporting You - Youth Mentors & Safeguarding Under 18s

Youth Mentors

Youth Mentors are Town Councillors who are there to help you through the application process and if you are successful, guide you in your Youth Rep work. They will answer any questions you have about the role and how the Town Council works.

Safeguarding / Under 18s

Town Council staff and Youth Mentors who work regularly with Youth Reps are required to have undertaken safeguarding training and a recent DBS check.

Before accepting the role of Community Youth Rep, parents or guardians of Under 18s will be asked to sign their consent.

If you wish to discuss any safeguarding matters, please contact the Town Council Designated Safeguarding Lead, Ed Humphreys (Town Clerk) on 01686 625544 or townclerk@newtown.org.uk

About The Town Council

What Are Community And Town Councils?

There are 735 community and town councils in Wales. They are the part of local government closest to the people. They serve the smallest area and are responsible for the most local of matters. Very importantly, these councils can "precept" - raising a sum collected with the council tax each year to improve facilities and services for local people.

Community and town councils have a number of basic responsibilities in making the lives of local communities more comfortable. They:

- deliver services to meet local needs
- represent the community and
- strive to improve quality of life in the community.
